St Mabyn - SEND in a Nutshell - End of Autumn 2025

Head - Lauren Gouge
SENDCO - Miss Jemma Shields

Strengths

- Inclusive nature of school to remove barriers to learning- equity rather than equality
- Safeguarding for our most vulnerable pupils
- Pupil voice and wellbeing is a high priority & used to reflect on current practice
- Timely and appropriate referrals are being made for external agency support
- All staff providing and supporting first wave high quality teaching involving scaffolding and adjusting work to support individual pupils
- Early identification of need and identifying barriers
- Experienced teaching & support staff
- SENDCo liaises regularly with Trust
- SENDCos to share best practice
- Support from Educational Mental Health Practitioner

Priorities for Autumn Term 2025

1. To work with the Head of School to improve the attendance of SEND children.
2. To ensure children with SEND make better than expected progress.
3. Ensure evidence based interventions are implemented and their impacts are assessed.
4. To coordinate with families and outside agencies to support children's needs at home.
